THE

FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME XLVI.

149992

PHILADELPHIA:

PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE.

1873.

XUM

INDEX.

Abolitionist. How Joshua Leavitt became an, 396.
Affliction. The blessing of, 61.
On true resignation under, 110.
On the uses of, 255.
Afflictions to be considered as medicines to the soul, 92.
Age. On the happiness of, 102.
Agriculture. On Liebig's discoveries in the chemistry of, 49.
On the use of edible fish in England as manure, 101.
Successful use of sewage in, 135.
Reported failure of sewage irrigation in, 411.
Immense wheat farms in California, 141.
Prices of provisions in 1315, 308.
The great pastures of the West, 403.
Alaska. Account of ancient burial places in, 143.
Alexander Mary. Extract from, upon the patient endurance of the preparation for the ministry, 271.
Alexander Edward. Testimony of Elizabeth Greer concerning, 34.
Testimony of, to the raising up of the Society of Friends to bear witness of the spiritual appearance and government of Christ, 130.
Remarks on the above, 135.
Letter of, to Sarah [L] Grubb, 178.
Allen William. Convincement of a theological student through Barclay's Apology, recorded by, 351.
Alps. Description of scenery among the, 113.
"Am I my brother's keeper?" Essay entitled, 213.
America. Notes on the antiquities of, 9. 17. 26. 33. 43. 65. 73. 81. 143.
Anatomy. Account of some early discoveries in, 116. 122.
Anecdote entitled, "It is dark," 3.
of Daniel Webster, 4. of Dr. Fuller, 23.
of Samuel Emlen, 66.
of John Simpson, 82. of John Knox, 158.
of a particular Providence, 292.
of a dying child, 327.
of Richard Barnard, 350.
illustrating parental folly, 374.
Ants. The ravages of white, 45.
Ant-eaters. Notes on, 212.
Apothecary. The business of a, in former centuries, 109.
Arab. Anecdote of an astonished, 20.
Are the little ones fed. Essay entitled, 287.
Armies and Navies no longer required. Essay entitled, 237.
Arctic Exploration. Account of the "Polaris" expedition, 345. 355.
Astronomy. The discoveries of, considered in discriminating between the human and animal reason, 151.
Augustine. On the early and the later life of, 259.
Australia. The grass tree of, 180.
Autumnal Catarrh. Account of symptoms and regularity of the, 11.

Babylon. On mystical, by I. Penington, 307.
Remarks on the above, 325.
Baits of the enemy. Constant watchfulness necessary to avoid the, 397.
Banks John. An epistle of, 374.
Barclay's Apology. The assailants of, and his quasi-defender, 45.
Remarks on the above, 47.
Testimony of Friends in London to, in 1748, 110.
Testimony to, from persons not Friends, 207.
Extract from, upon perfection, 141.
Extract from, concerning the ministry, 145. 154. 163.
Comments upon a recent attack by Robert Alsop upon, 222.
Notice of a remonstrance against, by Edward Ash, 255.
Testimony of Samuel Scott to, 274.
Convincement of a theological student in Germany by, 351.
Barclay's Apology. Testimony of Wm. Savery to, 367.
Testimony of a writer in the British Journal to, 398.
Barclay's J., Life of Alex. Jaffray. Selections from, with comments, 173. 183. 193. 205. 221. 229. 237. 242. 251. 257. 266. 275. 286. 290. 305. 314.
Comments on the above, 325.
Barclay John. Remarks of, on religious instruction, 324.
Barnes Albert. Experiences and observations of, on the value of temperance, 174.
"Be not conformed to this world." Essay entitled, 177.
"Be sober, and watch unto prayer." Essay entitled, 317.
Comments on the above, 331. 335.
Be not discouraged. Communication entitled, 347.
Beaconite heresy. Remarks on the, 46, 49,
Remarkable incident relating to the, 188.
"Bear Rock," in the Purgatoire. Description of the, 14.
Beaver. Observations on the habits of, 102.
Bellamy Adey. Remarks of, on frivolous reading, 390.
Bessbrook. Account of the linen factories and teetotallers at, 330.
Bettle, Sr., Samuel. Remarks of William Evans upon a public testimony by, 203.
"Best as it is." Extract entitled, 126.
Bible. On the revision of the, now in progress, 372.
Bible Association of Friends in America. Circular of, 61.
Bird. Instinct of a, for the preservation of her nest, 87.
Observations on the Gannet, 102.
Account of a wild-pigeon roost in Maryland, 106.
The egg-heaps of the megapode, 148.
The steamer duck, 261.
The Calcutta crane, 277.
The Barking bird of S. America, 299.
Birds. Notes on some of our winter, 234.
Tameness of, in the Tyssen Islands, 298.
Frequency of feeding their young by some, 303.
Boat-ride. Account of a terrible, 373.
Bones. On the chemical products derived from, 53.
Book Notices, &c. A selection from the Memoranda and Letters of the late Elizabeth Greer—for private circulation, 15.
Dress and Worldly Compliance, 15.
A History and General Catalogue of Westtown B. School, 71.
A Sketch Map of the Nile Sources, &c., of Central Africa, 128.
Remarks on the "Life of Oliver Cromwell, by Chas. Adams," 229.
Borax. Notice of the existence and purification of, in Nevada, 36.
Boston. Comments on the late great fire in, 103.
The derivation of the name, 317,
"Bow and a Scrape, A." The probable origin of, 30.
Boys. On the treatment of, by fathers, 118.
Brain. On the unconscious action of the, 41.
Brazil. A naturalist's life in, 2.
Silence of the forests of, 14.
"Bridge up." Essay entitled, 354.
Bridges in China. Notes on, 379.
British Museum. The dimensions of the library of, 126.
Brushes and Brush-making. On, 107.
Buenos Ayres. Account of an adventure among wild cattle in, 85.
Burmah. Account of the royal golden umbrella of, 28.
Business. Remarks of J. Woolman on self-denial and religious care in, 333.
Remarks on severe trials in, 389.
Extract on the alarming prevalence of dishonesty in, 404.
Buying and Selling. Considerations on, 162. 171. 180.

Cacti. On edible, 402.
California. Immense wheat farms in, 141.
Account of a large collection of honey in, 244.
Call to a deep and inward travail of spirit. A, 206.
Canton. Description of the city of, 241.
Cattle. On the transportation of, from the West, 403.
Caverns. Account of ice-producing, 390.
On mephitic and osseous, 393.
Caoutchouc. On the sources and collection of, 306.
Comments on the above, 325.
Capper Mary. Example of, in reference to wine, 367.
Cements. Practical notes on, 77.
Century plant. A precocious, 398.
Character, the crowning product of life, 70.
Charity—Christian love. Remarks on, 410.
Cheerfulness. On, 294.
Chemical Force. Illustrations of the effects of, 57.
Chemicals obtained from waste products. Account of, 52.
Chemistry. Brief sketch of Liebig's early labors in organic, 49.
Child. Expressions of a, upon attending meetings for worship, 332.
Children. Counsel upon the religious training of, 62. 66.
The importance to, of an early surrender of their wills and affections to the Lord, 191.
The indispensable duty of, to submit to the wholesome admonitions of their parents, 218.
Remarks of R. Shackleton on parental care over, 235.
Remarks on the effects of a merely formal profession of religion upon, 239.
On the responsibility and duty of parents to the, 247.
For the, 291.
Effects of the example of insincerity upon, 315.
Chillingham Cattle. Account of, 239.
China. On fire fishing in, 102.
Observations on the city of Canton, 241.
On the floods of Yantsze River in, 258. 265. 273.
On the origin of several "dust showers" observed in, 273.
On the cultivation of tea in, 347.
On the construction of bridges in, 379.
Christ. The light of in the heart, the cardinal doctrine of Friends, 257. 290.
The light of within, the law of the new covenant, 341.
Friends as a people given up in spirit to wait upon, 405.
Obedience to the light of, leads to a knowledge of doctrine, 410.
Christian. The secret intercourse with God of the, is made manifest to the world, 287.
Christian love. Remarks on, 410.
Chinese boat-life. Notes on, 92.
Church. On the true catholic, 145.
Remarks on discipline in the, 308.
Cities. A comparison between life in the country and, 367.
"Comfort in the dark hour." Anecdote entitled, 315.
Cinnamon. On the culture of in Ceylon, 110.
Clarkson Thomas. Remarks of, on the bearing of their testimony by Friends, 183.
Classical studies. Observations on the value of, in disciplining the mind, 51.
Climate. On the possibility of an increase or diminution in the heat of the sun, 174.
and rainfall in India. 300.
of Santa Cruz, as affected by the destruction of forests, 338.
Clothing. On a new process for using paper as a material for, 52.
Coal. On the manufacture of chemicals from the waste products of, 52.
as a product of the transformation of wood, 235.
dust. On the utilization of, in France, 372.
Cocoa-nut palm and its uses. Notes on the, 150.
Coffee culture in Ceylon. On the, 90.
College graduates? What becomes of the gifted, 37.
Collins Esther, and Ann Edwards. Brief sketch of the lives of, 362. 370. 381.
Colored race. Anecdote illustrating the former prejudice against, 396.

149992

Comets. On the connection between meteors and, 164, 171.
"Coming to Jesus." Remarks on the expression, 263.
Coral reef. Notes on the animals inhabiting a, 140.
Confession and Restoration. Anecdotes of, 244.
Conformity to the world. On, 412.
Consecrated Looking-glasses. Extracts from an address entitled, 198. 202.
Consumption. On Dr. MacCormac's theory of, 84.
Contentment. Remarks on, 142.
Conversation. Exaggeration in, discouraged, 259.
Convents in England. On the increase of, 332.
Conversion. On the danger of mistaking conviction for, 124.
On the entire change of heart in, 125.
The presumption and danger of the doctrine of immediate, 303.
Cope David. Memorial concerning, 394.
Coral. Statistics of the growth of, 367.
Cotopaxi. Account of the first ascent of, 289.
Cotton. On the history of the manufacture of, 94. 100.
Court. Recent charge to a Grand Jury in a Chester County, and comments, 127.
Covetousness. Remarks on, as a prevailing sin, 167.
Crisp Stephen. Remarks of, upon his early experience in religion, 135.
Cromwell Oliver. Remarks on the character of, as a professed Christian, 229.

Dark day in New England, in 1780. Account of the, 115.
Date palms. Account of the, 60.
Day calls for Decision, The. Essay entitled, 278.
Deaths.—Sina Armstrong, 216; William J. Alsop, 368; Mary R. Brown, 88; Susan Ridgway Branson, 88; William Balderston, 144; Jane Boyce, 152; William Batting, 224; Amos Battey, 240; Elizabeth E. Borton, 288; Edmund Bailey, 368; Margaret Bailey, 368; William Comfort, 24; Mary Craft, 144; Anna S. Collins, 168; Jane Canby, 176; Sarah Conrad, 192: Lucy A. Chambers, 208; Margaret Comfort, 312; Abigail S. Clark, 344; William H. Davidson, 64; James DeCou, 168; Mordecai L. Dawson, 168; Thomas H. De Cou, 288; Martha De Cou, 288; Robert Ellyson, 88; John Engle, 312; Sibbilla Embree, 328; Reuben Eldridge, Jr., 336; Deborah French, 120; Debby Dewees, 160; Hesekiah Bailey, 160; Joseph Fox, 240; Elizabeth Fawcett, 320; Emily B. Frame, 360; Jemima Ann Gifford, 104; Charles C. Gaskill, 128; Jesse George, 224; Mary M. Garrigues, 248; Annah Haines, 40; Tamer Hiatt, 40; Joseph Haines, 48; Sarah M. Hill, 104; Rachel Hill, 400; Curtis Hoopes, 400; Mary Ann Hughes, 112; Achsah Hall, 176; Joseph Heacock, 200; Sarah Harper, 232; Mary R. Jessup, 352; Lydia B. Kite, 136; Mahlon Kirkbride, 184; Grace E. Kaighn, 208; Marmaduke Lippincott, 8; Jane W. Lightfoot, 112; Hannah M. Levick, 168; Lydia Leedom, 200; Jane Lippincott, 312; Hannah Llewelyn, 360; William Llewellyn, 400; Rachel Miller, 128; Susanna Malin, 200; Dr. Isaac S. Mulford, 232; Hannah W. Mendenhall, 320; Nicholas Newlin, Sr., 320; Priscilla Nicholson, 376; Beulah C. Parker, 352; Elizabeth S. Rhoads, 104; Samuel Reeve, 184; Mary Reed, 224; Elizabeth W. Reeves, 344; Mercy Roberts, 352; Asa Raley, 360; Ruth Stanley, 104; Mary P. Simpson, 112; Elisha Sidwell, 120; Caroline M. Smith, 128; Maria Smith, 160; Walter Smith, 416; Mary T. Sharpless, 224; Rebecca R. Sharp, 232; Job Scott, 400; Mary R. Sheppard, 408; Drusila Test, 272; Hannah Thorn, 280; Hannah A. Warner, 56; Elma Windle, 80; Deborah L. Walton, 88; Edwin Wright, 208; Israel Walker, 216; Eliza S. Wright, 288; Mary Warner, 416.
Debtors. On the moral obligation of, 391.
Detraction. Advice in regard to, 319.
Dewsbury, William. The convincement of, 139.
Remarks of, on the work of the Lord's spirit in the heart, 192.
Encouragement by, to faithful Friends, 277.
Diary of Samuel Scott. Extracts from, and comments, 245. 262. 270. 274. 283. 302. 322. 348. 377. 387. 403. 411.
Disraeli Benjamin. Account of, 97. 105.
"Diversity in doctrine." Essay entitled, 90.
Dogs. Anecdotes of, 154. 327. 379.
Dollinger. John Joseph Ignatius von. Sketch of, and the new protest against Rome, [continued from vol. xlv. p. 410], 1.
Dress. The demoralizing effect of fashionable, 28.
The cross borne in, a part of the needful discipline of the Christian, 177.
Remarks on, and personal adornment, by a Presbyterian clergyman, 198. 202.
Remarks on, by Mary Fletcher, a Methodist, 268.
Dress. Experience of Daniel Wheeler in reference to a plain, 298.
Scripture texts on women's, 323. of Friends. Remarks on the, 342. 412.
Drought. Remarks on the late, 390.
Duty. On the prompt performance of, 92.

Earthquake waves noticed at sea, 299.
Earthquakes. On the physical causes of, 89. 98.
Ecclesiastical millinery. On, 70.
Economy. The advantage of devoting to benevolent purposes the money saved by, 30.
Edmundson Wm. Remarks of, on acceptable prayer, 190.
Education. Remarks on the practical effects of, observed in college graduates, 37.
On the value of the study of languages in, and the object of, 51.
On the importance of cultivating the memory in, 391.
Edwards Ann, and Esther Collins. Brief sketch of the lives of, 362. 370. 381.
Editorial.—On commencing the Forty-sixth volume, 7; Comments on the memoranda of Elizabeth Greer, 15; Notice of "Dress and worldly compliance, addressed to the members of the Society of Friends," 15; On the efforts being made among Friends to subvert their views in relation to true gospel ministry, 30; Notice of the proceedings of Canada Yearly Meeting, 31; Observations on the defection in regard to the testimonies of Friends among members of the Society in England, 38; Comments on an article entitled, "The assailants of Barclay and his quasi-defender," 47; Account of the recent removal in a Philadelphia Court of the hat of a Friend, a juror, and comments, 55; Notice of "A History and General Catalogue of Westtown Boarding School, 71; Notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 1872, 79. 95; An unchristian advocate of the extermination of the Indians, reviewed, 79; On the blessings of and lessons to be learned in sickness, 87; Observations on the ministry, 94; Remarks on the wide-spread disease among horses, 103; Comments on the late great fire in Boston, and the lessons to be learned from such calamities, 103; Notice of the proceedings of Western and Indiana Yearly Meetings, 1872, and comments, 111; Remarks on proceedings of "The Free Religious Association," and denial of an accordance in the doctrines held by them with those of Friends, 119; Notice of a slander printed in England in reference to Friends acting as Indian agents, and a letter of President Grant on continuing his "Indian policy," 120; Observations on the extracts entitled, "Without me ye can do nothing," 127; Notice of "A Sketch Map of the Nile Sources, &c., of Central Africa," 128; Notice of the proceedings of Kansas Yearly Meeting, 128; Comments on the testimony of Edward Alexander and other dedicated servants, against the defection in doctrines and practices of Friends, 135; Remarks on the award of the Joint High Commission, and the happy method thus adopted of deciding international disputes, 143; Considerations on the progress of religious truth in the civilized world, and on the increase of infidelity among circles of the higher society in England, 151; Reflections on the close of the year, and the evidences of the circulation of the life of Christianity among the masses, 159; Remarks on the prevailing love of money and the shameless pursuit of it, 167; Comments on erroneous doctrinal views, 175; Notice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, 176; Notice of the Memorial of Friends to the Constitutional Convention upon military services, 183; Notice to contributors, 184; The importance to the young of an early surrender of their will and affections to the Lord, 191; On the divine origin of the Holy Scriptures, and the impiety of claiming rightly to understand them by the natural intellectual powers only, 199; True love to God the origin of true love to man, 207; On the duty of almsgiving, 215; Remarks on a pamphlet entitled "What is the Gospel?" 222; Caution to Friends against compromising their testimonies in professedly religious exercises, 231; Remarks on the force of the example upon children of a merely formal profession of religion, 239; Observations in reference to a "General Meeting" in Ohio, 240; Remarks on proceedings in some so-called "Friends' Meetings," 247; Notice of a remonstrance by Edward Ash against Barclay's Apology, 255; On the pleasures and profit of religion, 263; Thoughts upon the return of Spring, 271; Extract upon a Revival meeting in Indiana, 272; Review of "Brief Remarks on the Appeal for the Ancient Doctrines of the religious Society of Friends put forth by the Yearly Meeting of Philadelphia in 1847," 278; Account of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 294; On the impossibility of experiencing the forgiveness of sins in man's own time and will, and the danger of such a profession, 303; On keeping the faith in low seasons, 311; Remarks on an Epistle of Hannah Gibbons, 312; Comments on an article entitled, "An object in life," 328; Remarks on the interest attaching to scientific explorations in the East, 335; Comments on a critique of a contributed article, 335; Comments on the applicability at the present time of the declaration, "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you," &c., 343; Remark in reference to publishing notices of marriage, 343; Remarks on leaving the city during the warm weather, 351; Notice of the proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 1873, 359; Comments on an account of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 1873, published in The British Friend, 359; Remarks on the comparative healthfulness of country and city life, and on the weekly mortality in Philadelphia, 367; On the thankful enjoyment of every day blessings, 375; Remarks on the "Journal of the Fourth Annual Session of the General Council of the Indian Territory," 383; Remarks to a contributor, 384; Remarks on a minute of New York Yearly Meeting and the course pursued by Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in regard to the separation in Ohio in 1854, 398. 406. On the necessity of a true knowledge of self, and the impossibility of obtaining it without obedience to the Light of Christ, 415.
Egypt. Notes on shopping in, 249.
Mourning women in, 263.
Account of an ancient scroll from, 332.
Egyptian Summer and second Spring. On, 243. record of the Exodus. Account of a, 255.
Elephants. Longevity of, 228.
Ellwood Thomas. Remarks of, on adopting the testimonies of Friends, 412.
Emlen Samuel. Anecdote of interview of, with Rachel Price, 66.
Emlen Institution. Appeal on behalf of, 231.
Employers and employed. The reciprocal duties of the, 3.
Endurance. On the lesson of, 101.
England. Ceremony in the Parliament of, 7.
Statistics of the increase of convents and Romanism in, 332.
English language. The number of words in the, derived from Latin and Teutonic sources, 30.
Ephesus. Exploration of the temple of Diana at, 300.
Epistle of Hannah Gibbons to Middleton Monthly Meeting of Friends, 308.
Remarks on the above, 325.
of John Banks, 374.
Europe. The outlook in, 141.
Evans John. Brief notice of, 179.
Evans Jonathan. Extract from a letter of, to a minister, 94.
Evans William. Testimony of, concerning Hinchman Haines, 21.
Remarks of, on prayer and thanksgiving, and comments, 44.
Extracts from the Journal of, 203. 271.
Letter of, to the Superintendents of Westtown Boarding School, 268.
Extract from, upon separations in the Church, 271.
On experiencing our sins blotted out, 311.
Comments on the above, 326.
Remarks on an incident in the life of, 354.
Evans Elizabeth. Incident in the ministry of, 382.
Exaggeration in conversation discouraged, 259.
Extracts from Letters, &c., referring chiefly to Friends in America, during last century, with notes, 109. 114. 121. 132. 137. 146. 153. 161. 169. 179. 186. 201. 209. 219.

Faith. The distinction between that which is of man, and true, 93.
The walk of, 141.
On the trial of our, 220.
On keeping the, in low seasons, 311.
Comments on the above, 327.
Faraday Michael. Biographical sketch of, 195. 203. 210.
Fathers. On the treatment of sons by, 118.
Fenelon. Remark of, on his love of mankind, 7.
Fidelity to duty. On, 101.
Fire alarm telegraph. Account of the New York, 70.
Fish. Objection to the use of edible, in England as manure, 101.
Flaw-hunters. The, 383.
Florida. The climate and appearance of East, 281.
Food. Suggestion for the supplying of cooked, in cities, from a central establishment, 382.

"Foolscap." Origin of the name, 68.
Foraminifera in the China Seas. Notes on, 131.
Forests. Silence of the Brazilian, 14.
Effects of the destruction of, upon climate, 338.
Formalism. The danger of substituting, for godliness, 63.
Fox George. Remarks of, to those who had received a gift in the ministry, and comments, 94.
Letter of, on preaching, and comments, 181.
Testimony of Wm. Penn concerning, 190.
On the understanding of the Scriptures, 200.
Paper of, showing that people must repent before they can receive the gospel, 244.
On the Life and Times of, by William Knox, 313. 322. 329. 337. 346. 355. 364.
The labor of, to bring every one to the inward teacher, 386.
Fox Maria. Extract from, on holy stability, 6.
Fothergill John. Remarks of, on the danger of leaving home too easily to travel in the ministry, 119.
On the building up of Zion, 124.
Fothergill John, Dr. Letters of, 109. 114.
Biographical notice of. 114.
Testimony of Samuel Scott concerning, 270.
Fothergill Samuel. Letters of, 133. 137. 146. 147. 194.
Incident related by, and comments, 213.
Extracts from, 239. 347.
France. Description of an ancient dungeon in, 294.
Statistics of the small increase of population in, 171.
Freedmen. Letters addressed to Friends' Associations for relief of, 125. 158. 165. 189.
Appeal on behalf of, 157. 374.
Remarks in reference to laboring among the, for their spiritual benefit, 173.
A common sense view of the suffering among the, 197.
Report of the Women's Aid Association for the relief of, 230.
Fraud. On, 162. 170. 180.
Friend The. Comments on the 39th number, 325.
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 119. 177. 179. 218. 228. 234. 277. 278. 310. 317. 341. 347. 397. 405. 406.
A word of encouragement to, 6.
Observations on Sewel's History of, 27.
Remarks of a lately deceased Friend on the present state of the Society of, 44.
Advice to, to retire inward in spirit, 47.
Remarks of Elizabeth Greer on the state of the Society of, 50.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting of 1838, in relation to the doctrines and testimonies of, 91.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting of 1827, to, 98.
On Faith as professed by, 93.
Encouragement to support the testimonies of, 127. 218. 306.
A paper by Edward Alexander, on the raising up of the Society of, to bear witness to the spiritual appearance and government of Christ in the heart, 130.
Request in reference to members among, visiting New York city, 164.
The necessity for the faithful maintenance of the testimonies in regard to dress by, not diminished, 177.
On unity among the early, 181.
Remarks of Thos. Clarkson on the bearing of their testimony by, 183.
Memorial of, in regard to military services, to the Convention of delegates elect to revise the Constitution of Pennsylvania, 183.
Dying testimony of one who had left the Society, to the truth of the doctrines of, 188.
Remarks on the patient endurance of sufferings by the early, and its fruits, 193.
Caution to, against compromising their testimonies, 231.
Remarks on the present condition of the Society of, 234. 247. 343. 398. 405. 406.
Remarks of William Evans upon enduring trials, by, 271.
On the holding of "revival" meetings by, 277.
On the danger and evil of adopting a modified Quakerism by, 278.
The condition of the Society of, in England in 1837-8, 282.
Remarks on religious revivals among, 318.
Suggestion for the opening of a boarding-house for, in Philadelphia, 76.
Encouragement for, 306.
Remarks on the plain dress of, 342.
Remarks in reference to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of, 343. 398. 406.
Friends. Incident related of C. Healy in connection with "Bible Christians" among, in England, 358.
Remark in reference to the separation from, in 1827, 356.
On controversy in the Society of, 382.
Remarks on the watchful care of concerned Friends, in the Society of, 390.
A want of true inward prayer a chief cause of the weakness and divisions among, 398.
Remarks of Thos. Ellwood, on being required to adopt the testimonies of, 412.
Fruit. On the advantage of, to health, 134.
Fruits. Cause of the rupture of, after rains, 397.

Gallop for life. Account of a, 85.
Geese. Account of the method of unnaturally developing the liver of, 37.
George IV. of England. Interview of William Savery with, 5.
Gibbons Hannah. Epistle of, to Middleton Monthly Meeting of Friends, 308.
Remarks on the above, 325.
Glaciers. On the polishing of rocks by, 113.
Glue. Practical hints on using. 77.
Godliness. Observations on the form of, without the power, 314.
Gold pens. The method of manufacturing described, 59.
Gratitude. Memorial of, 167.
Greer Elizabeth. Minute of County Tipperary Monthly Meeting concerning, 10.
Selections from the memoranda and letters of, 10. 22. 25. 34. 42. 50. 58. 67. 76. 83.
Remarks on the above, 15.
Griffith John. Extracts from, 60. 71.
Remarks of, on his call to the ministry, 196. 268.
Grimsel. Description of the, by Prof. Tyndall, 113.
Grubb Sarah [L]. Part of a communication of, in London Yearly Meeting, 187.
Remarks of, on parental responsibility and duty, 247.
Extracts from, in relation to the Society in England, in 1837-8, 282.
Gurney Joseph John. Remarks on, as an assailant of Barclay, 46. 47.
The doctrines taught by, different from those of Friends, 278.
Remarks on the doctrines of, 285.

Hagger Mary. Extract from, 222.
Hail-storm of Seventh month, 1873. Remarks on the, 389.
Haines Hinchman. Remark of, concerning the habit of preaching, 21.
Testimony of William Evans respecting, 21.
Hand. The preferential use of the right, partly due to physical causes, 148.
Remarks on the evidence of design in the, 284.
Harvey. On the discovery of the circulation of the blood by, 117.
Hat honor. Recent incident in a Philadelphia Court respecting, and comments, 55.
"Hay fever." Account of the symptoms of, &c., 11.
Heald John. Memorial concerning, 338.
Extracts from a journal of, with comments, 349. 356. 365. 369. 378. 386. 395. 401. 409.
Health. Seasonable hints on the preservation of, 5.
Notes on autumnal catarrh or "hay fever," 11.
On the danger to, from newly built houses, 111.
On the proper care of young children, 129.
On the advantage of the use of fruit to, 134.
Successful experiments with sewage, 135.
The importance of sunlight to, 297.
Impure water as a cause of typhoid fever, 356. 358.
The necessity of ventilation to, 410.
Healy Christopher. Incident in the ministry of, 358.
Hints to mothers, 129.
Holy Scriptures. Remarks of William Penn on man's interpretation of, 36.
The help of the Holy Spirit to be waited for, in understanding the, 117.
The truth of the, confirmed by the records of Nineveh, 143.
On the impiety of claiming rightly to understand the, by the natural intellectual powers only, 199.
Illustrations of the appropriateness of some of the allusions of, 243. 249. 375.
Remarks on reading the, 335.
On the confirmation of the accuracy of, by explorations in the East, 335.
Holy Spirit. On the presence and influences of the, 309.
Holy Spirit. Remarks on the infallibility of the, 377.
Home and its queen, 316.
Honesty. On commercial, 404.
Honey. Account of a large collection of wild, in California, 244.
Hornold William. Dying expressions of, 252.
Horses. Notice of the recent prevailing sickness among, and comments, 103.
Houses. On the danger of dwelling in newly built, 111.
"How much do I cost?" Anecdote entitled, 327.
Huguenots. Account of the medal struck by the Pope to commemorate the slaughter of the, 340.
Humility and searching of heart. On, 229.
Humility the prime grace of Christianity, 379.
Hunt Nathan. Incident in the life of, 282.
Hydra. Observations on the, 387. 405.

Ice. Experiments showing the regelation of, 135.
Ice-producing caverns. Account of, 390.
Idaho. Notice of recent explorations in, 236,
"I'll na trust ye." Anecdote entitled, 207.
Remarks on the above, 325.
India. On the destruction caused by wild beasts, &c., in, 291. 398. 411.
On the climate and rainfall in, 300.
Statistics of the increase of religious "communicants" in, 303.
On the production of opium in, 307. 325.
On the use of ice in, 315.
Notes on the railroads of, 380.
On the antiquity of the cotton manufacture in, 94. 100.
Notes on caste in, 233.
India-Rubber. On the collection of, in South America, 212.
Indian names in Pennsylvania, &c. On the meaning of, 266. 275.
Indians. Account of a recent peace Council of, with the Kiowas, 28. 34.
Speeches of John Jumper, a Seminole, and of other civilized, 28. 34.
The mound builders, a different people from the, 17.
of the Central Superintendency. Statistics of the progress of, 71. 262. 314.
Statistics showing the efficiency and economy of the present public policy towards the, 78.
An unchristian advocate of the extermination of the, reviewed, 79.
A peaceful policy towards, the wisest and cheapest, 84.
Letter of President Grant, stating his intention of continuing the peaceful policy of the Government towards the, 120.
Report of Committee of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting for the improvement of, 155.
Suggestions in reference to enforcing the treaty obligations of the Government towards, 158.
Statement in reference to the relief of Oneida, near Green Bay, 167. of Pennsylvania during last century. Letters, &c., in reference to, 169. 179. 186. 194. 201. 209.
Remarks on Wm. Penn's treatment of the, 187.
Letter of Thos. C. Battey, concerning his residence among the Kiowa, 211. 342.
On the origin of the late war with the Modoc, 221.
Letter of Jona. Richards, on the improving condition of the Comanche and other, 314.
Appeal of the Women's Association for the aid of, 323.
Remarks on the Journal of a recent Council of, in the Indian territory, 383.
Report of Committee on Agriculture to a General Council of, 385.
Indian aid Association. Appeal on behalf of, 190.
Infidel. Conversion of an, 383.
Influences of the Holy Spirit. On the, 309.
Comments on the above, 326.
Insects. On the ravages of white ants, 45; Parasites on flies, 51; Bird-eating spider, 218; A pet wasp, 220.
Insincerity in speech. Remarks on, 315.
Instinct. Recent researches upon, 254.
Illustration of hereditary, 367.
Integrity. A man of, 367.
Intemperance. Extract from A. Barnes, on the spread of, in the community, 174.
Intoxication. Punishment of, in Russia, 55.
Intoxicating drinks. Example of the benefits of total abstinence from, at Bessbrook, 330.
Example of Mary Capper in regard to, 367.
Statistics of the increasing consumption of, in England, 388.

149992

Italian parliament. Account of the opening of the first, 19.
"It is dark." Anecdote entitled, 3.
Itinerant eating house, 382.

Jackson William. Remarks of, in his last illness, 107.
Anecdote of, in reference to a plain dress, 238.
Jaffray Alexander. Selections from J. Barclay's Life of, 173. 183. 193. 205. 221. 229. 237. 242. 251. 257. 266. 275. 286. 290. 305. 314.
Comments on the above, 325.
Japan. Notes on pedlers in, 6.
On the use of the persimmon in, 319.
Japanese boys at a Boston school, 292.
Jerusalem. On the subterranean chambers of, and its present condition, 125.
Jesuits. Statistics of the number of, 277.
Jews. On the phylacteries of the, 91.
Jewelry. Remark of a heathen who had embraced Christianity upon, 158.
Jewess. Account given by a, of her convincement of the Truth as professed by Friends, 53.
Job—a parable, 106.
Johnson Samuel. Remarks of S. Scott on the character of, 411.
Jones George and Ann. Account of the last evening spent by, in Philadelphia, 85.
Justification. Remarks on the danger of erroneous views respecting, 175.
Remarks of Samuel Scott on, 322.

Kendall's Letters. Extract from, 306.
Comments on the above, 325.
Knott Elizabeth. Remarkable incident recorded by, 188.
Knox John. Anecdote of, 158.
Krupp's steel works. Statistics of, 127.

Lakes. On salt water, 286.
Lancaster Lydia. Dying expressions of, 383.
Language. On the value of the study of, in disciplining the mind, 51.
Leaky Roof. The, 413.
Leper's village in the Sandwich Islands. Account of a, 382.
"Let him alone." On the danger of outliving the day of our visitation, 70.
"Let us think of it." Extract entitled, 358.
Letter of Sarah Wells, a Jewess, after her convincement of the Truth as held by Friends, 53.
Letter of William Penn, recently first published, 74.
Letter of a lately deceased Friend on the present state of the Society, 44.
Letters of Elizabeth Greer. Extracts from, 50. 67. 76. 83.
John Fothergill, the physician, 109. 114.
Israel Pemberton, 121. 138. 179. 187. 202.
James Pemberton, 162. 169. 201. 209.
John Pemberton, 194.
Sarah Morris, 121.
Abel Thomas, 134.
Samuel Fothergill, 133. 137. 146. 147. 194. 219.
John Churchman, 161.
Edward Alexander to Sarah [L] Grubb, 178.
Catharine Payton, 219.
John Kendall, 219.
Anthony Pearson, 250.
William Evans, 268.
Thomas Evans, 269.
Letter of a poor girl. A, 343.
Letters addressed to Friends' Freedmen Association, 125. 158. 165. 189.
Letters in reference to the improvement of the Western Indians, 211. 242. 314. 384.
Library of the British Museum. Dimensions of the, 126.
Life-boat service in Great Britain. Statistics of, 372.
Life and times of George Fox. On the, 313. 322. 329. 337. 346. 355. 364.
Liebig. Brief sketch of the early labors of, in organic chemistry, 49.
Light. On the influence of, upon health, 297.
Light of Christ in the heart. Observations on the, 257. 290. 341.
Linney Elizabeth. Account of the convincement and life of, 217. 225.
Literature. On the injurious effect of fictitious, 19.
Literary culture. Observations on the proper effects of, 51.
"Look out for the Rocks." Extract entitled, 291.
London. Density of population in, 23.
Notes of a naturalists' visit to the Victoria docks in, 82.
London. Cost of the railroads in, 182.
Love. On true, 207.
Love and unity. Remarks upon the promotion of, 247.
"Lower and deeper." Extract with comments entitled, 228.
Luther. Observation of, on experimental religion, 30.

Marriages.—Alfred White to Elizabeth Evans, 24; Edward Bettle to Elizabeth H. Tatnall, 80; George Abbott, Jr., to Elizabeth E. Lippincott, 80; John Hutchinson to Anna Warrington, 96; Joseph Russell to Martha Raley, 96; Morris Stanley to Catharine L. Smith, 136; Finley Hutton to Eliza A. Willets, 264; Nathaniel G. Macomber, M. D., to Mary Anna Kaighn, 280; Ellwood Evans to Sarah L. Evens, 328; Edward Maris to Rachel Scattergood, 344; Jonathan Evans to Rachel Cope, 344; William Matlack, Jr., to Rebecca Haverstick, 352; William Henry Brown to Elizabeth K. Hulme, 352; Eli Sharpless to Mary W. Savery, 360; Joseph Pennell to Deborah S. Yarnall, 376; John A. Hobson, M. D., to Martha H. Branson, 376; Marriage. Advice of Samuel Emlen in relation to, 66.
Advice of London Yearly Meeting, 1777, to Friends against mixed, 334.
Medal. Account of the Pope's massacre, 340.
Memorial concerning John Heald, 338.
Memorial concerning David Cope, 394.
Memorial concerning William Walter, 412.
Memory. Remarkable instance of, 23.
On the importance of cultivating the, 391.
Merthyr Tydvill. Successful experiments upon sewage at, 135.
Meteors. The origin of, attributable to the disentegration of comets, 164. 171.
Remarkable recent display of, as observed in Italy, 172.
Mexico. On the city of, 316.
Microscopes. On the construction of and discoveries by the early, 116. 122.
Exhibition of, and of microscopical objects, 282.
Notes on, 350. 353. 361. 378. 387. 405.
Mimetic wood spider, 365.
Ministry. Testimony of Hinchman Haines respecting the habit of preaching, 21.
Remarks of Elizabeth Greer on first coming out in the, 25. 43.
On the views of Friends in relation to, 30. 190.
Account by Rachel Price of her first appearance in the, 47.
of Ann Jones. Remarks on the, 85.
Remarks of George Fox in relation to the, and comments, 94.
Observations of Jonathan Evans on the, 94.
Remarks on the danger of being too easily drawn to travel in the, 119.
Remarks of one, not a Friend, on a reliance upon human acquirements in the, 123.
Remarks of Abel Thomas upon his experience in the, 134.
Robert Barclay, concerning the, 145. 154. 163.
Remarks of Job Scott, upon waiting for the fresh qualifications for, 185.
of George Fox. Wm. Penn's testimony concerning, 190.
Observations of John Griffith on his call to the, 196.
Remarks of John Griffith upon unsanctified appearances in the, 268.
On the patient endurance of the preparation for the work of the, 271.
Mirage of the plains. The deception caused by the, 46.
"Mite into the Treasury," by David Hall. Extract from, 227.
Monkeys. Notes on South American, 18. 218.
More Hannah. Interview of William Savery with, 5.
Moths. On preventing the destruction by, to clothing. 68.
Mound-builders. Notes on the, 9. 17. 26. 33. 43,
Mountains. How formed, 309.
Remarks on the above, 326.
"Mud lumps" of the Mississippi. Account of the, 44.
Music. Remarks of Elizabeth Greer on, 58.
"My Strawberry Bed." Essay entitled, 310.
Comments on the above, 326.

Names. Notes on words in the English language derived from proper, 214.
On the meaning of some Indian, 266. 275.
Naturalist's life in Brazil. A, 2.
Natural History.—Sponge gathering, 4; S. American monkeys, 18; The Salmon, 54; The Octopus, 63; The Asiatic Rhinoceros, 75; Instinct of a bird, 87; Leaping Fish, 92; The Gannet, 102; Sea-jellies, 102; The Beaver, 102; Animals obtained by dredging in the China Sea, 131; Red sea-worms, 131; The clicking shrimp, 131; Insects observed at sea, 131; The turtle, 138; Animals inhabiting a coral reef, 140; The megapode, 148; Reptiles, &c., of Labuan, 157; South American snakes, 204; Ant-eaters, 212; The Coaita monkey, 218; On some of our winter birds, 234; Chillingham cattle, 239; Notes on instinct, 254; The steamer duck, 261; The Calcutta crane, 277; Animal tissues, &c., by the microscope, 282; The Guanaco, 298; The Barking bird, 299; The rattlesnake, 358; A mimetic wood-spider, 365; The growth of coral. 367.
New England. Account of the dark day in, in 1780, 115.
New Year. Reflections upon entering the, 157. 159.
Niagara. Observations of Prof. Tyndall upon. 299.
Nineveh. The records of ancient, confirming the truth of Scripture, 143.
"No Cross, no Crown." Remarks on, 363.
Not a partial but a whole sacrifice required of us. Essay entitled, 406.
Notes on microscopy, 350. 353. 361. 378. 387. 405.

Oaths. Encouragement to maintain a Christian testimony against judicial, 127.
Extracts from a daily newspaper against judicial, 293.
Object in life. An, 308.
Remarks on the above, 326. 328.
Octopus. On the use of as food in the S. Pacific, 63.
Odors. On the perception of, by various animals, 66.
One in Christ. Extract entitled, 127.
Opium. On the production of, in India, 307. 325.
Oriental customs. Notes on, 249. 263.
Origin of man. On the, 222. 226. 238. 246. 253. 259. 269. 284. 349. 357. 362. 370.
Opinions of great men on war, 381.

Palm. Notes on the cocoa-nut, and its uses, 150.
Paper as a material for clothing. New process for using, 52.
car wheels. Account of, 124.
Parasites on flies. Observations upon, 51.
Pastures of the West. On the great, 403.
Parental influence and responsibility. On, 247.
Parental folly. Incident of, 374.
Patagonia. On the character of Southern, 394.
Pavy expedition. The, 163. 215.
Pearson Anthony. Letter of, in his early convincement, 250.
Pemberton Israel. Letters of, 121. 138. 179. 187. 202.
Biographical notice of, 132.
Pemberton John. Letters of, 194.
Pemberton James. Letters of, 162. 169. 201. 209.
Biographical notice of, 121. 132.
Perfection. Extract from Robert Barclay upon, 141.
Penington Isaac. Extracts from, 19. 46.
Testimony of William Penn on the character of, 90.
On the faith which is of man, and that which is of God, 93.
On true and false worship, 301.
On mystical Babylon, 307.
Testimony concerning, by his wife, 317.
Pens. Account of the manufacture of gold, 59.
Penn William. Remarks of, on man's interpretation of the Scriptures, 36.
A letter of, printed recently for the first time, 74.
Letter of, addressed to the Emperor of Canada, 260.
On the light of Christ within, 341.
On "No Cross, No Crown," by, 363.
On the man of integrity, 367.
Persia as it is, with an account of the causes producing the famine, 68.
Persimmon. Account of improved varieties of, in Japan, 319.
Peru. Account of the antiquities of, 65. 73. 81.
Phillipine Islands. Notes on the animals of the, 55.
Description of the natural features &c., of the, 61.
Phosphorescence of the sea. On the, 251.
Phylacteries. Account of Jewish, 91.
Pigeons. Account of a roost of wild, 106.
Pitch lake of Trinidad. Account of the, 181.
Plains. On the deception caused by the mirage of the, 46.
Poor. Remark on assisting the, 386.
Plants.—Monkeys' drinking cups, 14; The cow-tree of Brazil, 14; The date palm, 60; The Traveller's tree, 92; The Face-leaved plant, 92; The Rice-paper plant, 102; Ceylon cinnamon, 110; Seaweed, 142. 146; Camphor-bearing trees, 148; The cocoa-nut palm, 150; The Grass tree, 180; S. American India-rubber tree, 212; The flora of the tropics, 260; The kelp of the South Pacific, 261; Sensitive plants, 268; Wild Fuchsias, 298; On lactiferous plants, 306; Japanese persimmons, 319; Accounts of ancient trees, 333. 339; A climbing dog violet, 365; A precocious century plant, 398; Edible cacti, 402.

Population. Statistics of the increase of, in Europe, 171.
Prayer. On acceptable, 190.
On inward, 392.
Prayer and thanksgiving, and the Divine life in the soul. Remarks on, 44.
Remarks of Alex. Jaffray upon, 266.
On silent waiting and, 397.
Prayers conceived without the immediate breathings of the Spirit. Remarks on, 46.
Preachers and people. Extracts for, 204.
Preservation from death. A wonderful, 373.
Price Philip. Remarks of, upon visiting meetings of Friends in 1796–7, 82.
Price Rachel. Remarks of, on religious impressions of children, 66.
Account by, of her first appearance in the ministry, 47.
Prices of provisions in 1315, 308.
Proverbs. On some foreign, 366.
Providence. Anecdote of a particular, 292.
Providential leading. On the blessing of, 214.
intimations. Remarks on observing, 354.

Poetry.—Original.—Lines suggested by a death-bed saying of Elizabeth Greer, 52; "Drive on," 116; Thoughts in a burial ground, 188; A child's monument, 220; Lines suggested by a death-bed scene, 244; Lines on the death of a young man, 252; Prayer, 268; Past Fifty, 292; Back again, 332; To my Great Redeemer, 372; The Response, 380.

Selected.—Aspirations, 76; The Babe of Bethlehem, 101; Beauties of Creation, 156; The Battle-field, 204; Be not weary, 212; Be still in God, 324; Chevalier, 21; Commit thy way to God, 60; Consecration, 252; Daily work, 124; The Dead, 132; Divine Sympathy, 180; Do as near right as you can, 349; Entire Submission, 101; Evening Hymn, 140; "Earth and Heaven," 149; Efficacy of Faith, 204; Every Day, 260; Father and Child, 4; Finishing the work, 37; The Friends' burial, 356; Gideon Gray, 92; The High Tide, 108; Humility, 156; Hold on, my Heart, 244; The Hearts' Guests, 285; Hope, 340; The Evening Hymn, 396; Indian Names, 300; "If we knew," 364; Jamie Douglass, 4; Jesus knows, 68; Kindness, 372; The Little People, 132; Lines written upon a remarkable dream, 309, and comments, 326; My little laborer, 52; A mystery, 236; My window ivy, 349; My cottage window, 364; Night and Day, 92; Not now, 124; Nil Desperandum, 173; Never mind, 236; Our Willows, 164; One with Thee, 180; Out of great tribulation, 188; Our Homestead, 340; The old Professor, 64; The Petrified fern, 140; Peace, 300; Prayer, 324; Power and goodness of God, 404; A Quiet Mind, 228; Rest, 149; The River path, 276; Step by Step, 84; The Suppliant, 164; Safe Home, 196; The Seed and the Sower, 220; Sometime, 380; Silence under trials, 388; Two sides in life, 396; The teacher taught, 28; The Tree, 37; Thoughts of Heaven, 76; The Thrush's nest, 276; The Time is short, 388; Trials, 404; Unused spices, 173; Waiting for the morning, 12; Why weepest Thou, 21; The Weaver, 196; What does it matter? 228; Woman's Rights, 268; What is Prayer, 285; The Waves, 316.

Rags. On the products obtained by the manufacture of, 53.
Railroad. The progress and prospects of the Northern Pacific, 364.
Railroads. Account of paper car wheels for, 124.
Cost of the London city, 182.
Account of a trial of the Westinghouse air brake, 322.
On the origin of the uniform guage of, 342.
in India. Notes upon, 380.
Rawlinson Elizabeth. Dying expressions of, 383.
Reading. Remarks on the hurtful character of frivolous, 390.
On the importance of judicious care in the selection of matter for, 19.
Regeneration, or the transforming power of the Holy Spirit. Essay upon, 250.
Religion. Remark of Elizabeth Greer on creaturely activity in, 50.
Remarks of William Dewsbury on efforts of the spirit of man in, 192.
On suffering a change of heart in the work of, 71.
Religion. On the distinction between opinions and convictions in, 90.
Comments on the progress of the truths of, in the civilized world, 151.
The pure joys of, missed by the unsanctified will, 261.
On the pure pleasures and profit of, 263.
we want." Extract entitled, "The, 285.
On the power of, to satisfy the human mind, 308.
On hanging out false colors in, 390.
Religious society. The only way to preserve the strength of a, 60.
opportunities. Brief reference to, 204. 386.
Religious talk. On, 234.
Comments on the above, 267. 277. 287. 310. 326.
instruction. Remarks of John Barclay on, 324.
Religious revivals among Friends. On, 318.
Religious toleration. On, 340.
Religious body in France disapproving of war, 367.
Repentance. The necessity of, before the gospel can be received, 244.
Report of the Committee for the improvement of the Indians, 155.
of the Committee having charge of Westtown Boarding School, 166.
of distribution of money to Oneida Indians, 167.
of the Bible and Tract Distributing Society, 224.
of the Women's Aid Association for the relief of Freedmen, 230.
of the Women's Indian Aid Association, 262.
of the Board of Managers of the Tract Association, 301.
Reptiles, &c., of Labuan. Notes on, 157.
Revision of the Bible now in progress. On the, 372.
Rhinoceros. Notes on the Asiatic, 75.
Rice-paper. On the production of, 102.
Richardson John. Remark of on the Holy Scriptures, 117
Account by, of a remarkable meeting in Nantucket, 117.
The early religious experience of, 175.
River. Account of the mud-lumps of the Mississippi, 44.
The inundation of the Yang-tsze, 258. 265. 273.
Roads. Description of the massive, of ancient Peru, 81.
Rome. Account of the new protest among Catholics against, [continued from vol. xlv. p. 410], 1.
Account of the opening of first parliament in, 19.
Roman Catholicism. Statistics of the increase of, in England, 332.
The medal struck by the Pope to commemorate the massacre of the Huguenots, 340.

Santa Cruz island. On the present progressive change in the climate of, 338.
Salmon. On the habits and habitat of the, 54.
Salt-water lakes. On, 286.
Saturn. Remarks on the planet, 133.
Savery William. Extracts from the Journal of, with comments, 5.
Scattergood Thomas. Extract from, 204.
Remarks on some observations by, 253.
School. Notice of "a History," &c., of Westtown, 71.
Schools. Objections to First-day, among Friends, 234.
for neglected children on First-days, established by Friends about 1800. Remarks on, 381.
Science. On the results following the discoveries in, 291.
Scorpions. Notes on, 157.
Scott Job. On the fresh qualification for the ministry, 185.
Remarks of, on a truly dependent state in religion, 261.
Scott Samuel. Extracts from the Diary of, and comments, 245. 262. 270. 274. 283. 302. 322. 348. 377. 387. 403. 411.
Sea. Description of a waterspout on the, 148.
On the phosphoresence of the, 251.
Account of a death and burial at, 319.
Sea-weeds. Notes on the classification and habitat of, 142. 146.
Secret of Cheerful Service. The, 414.
Sermon six miles long." Anecdote entitled, "A, 156.
Service, the highest act of one being to another, 3.
Serving two masters. Extract entitled, 379.
Sewage. Successful experiments with, 135.
Reported failure of irrigation with, 411.
Sewel's History of Friends. Observations on, 27.
Sickness. On the blessing of, and lessons to be learned in, 87.
Shackleton Richard. Remark of, upon silent meetings and a false ministry, 124.
Letters of, and comments, 198. 228.
Shackleton Richard. Advice of, to the young, 199.
A call to deep travail of spirit by, 206.
Belief of, in the restoration of the church through suffering and patience, 215.
Remarks of, on the causes retarding the growth in grace of youth, 220.
Extracts from, 230.
On the want of faithfulness in little things, 235.
On the spiritual exercises allotted him, 292.
On the government of Christ in the heart, 300.
Remarks on the visited youth, 309.
Comments on the above, 326.
Shepherds leading their flocks. Scripture illustrated by, 375.
Simpson John. Anecdote by, on the necessity of governing self, 82.
Sins of the tongue. On the, 173.
Sins of thought, 383.
Silk. The minuteness of the fibre of, 388.
Silk weaving in China. Notice of, 242.
Skeleton leaves. The process of preparing, described, 70.
Smell. Observations on the sense of, 66.
Snakes as household pets. Curious case in chancery, 12.
Remarks on the above, 23.
on the island of Labuan. Notes on, 157.
Notes on South American, 204.
On the method of obtaining the venom of, for use in medicine, 206.
Statistics of the number of deaths in India by, 291.
Observations on the use of the rattle of the rattlesnake, 358.
Somerville Mary. Account by, of a late eruption of Vesuvius, 125.
"Sowing wild oats." Remarks on the pernicious character of the expression, 259.
Sponge-gathering on the coast of Tunis. Notes on, 4.
Spider. Notice of a bird-eating, 218.
Sprat. On the occasional abundance of the, 67.
Statistics of the increase of population in Europe, 171.
of the life-boat service in Great Britain, 372.
of the consumption of intoxicating drinks in Great Britain, 388.
States of the Union. Origin of the names of, 205.
Storm. Account of extraordinary occurrence of lightning during a, 13.
Remarkable snow, of 12th mo. 26th, 1872, 178. 206.
Arrangements of the signal service bureau for the timely announcement of, 219.
Remarks on a recent hail, 389.
Suffering for Christ. Essay entitled, 253.
Summary of Events, 7. 16. 23. 31. 39. 47. 56. 64. 72. 79. 87. 96. 104. 112. 120. 128. 136. 144. 152. 160. 168. 176. 184. 192. 200. 208. 216. 223. 232. 240. 248. 256. 264. 272. 280. 287. 296. 304. 312. 320. 328. 336. 343. 352. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408. 416.
Sun. Remarks on the possibility of a diminution or increase in the heat of the, 174.
Comments on the above, 191.
The importance of the light of, to health, 297.
The shrinkage of the, a possible cause of its heat, 392.

Tale-bearing and detraction. Remarks upon a method of discouraging, 247.
Tea. On the cultivation and preparation of, in China, 347.
Teeth. Account of a successful reimplantation of, 47.
Telegraph. Rapid transmission of messages upon the Atlantic, 21.
Account of the New York Fire Alarm, 70.
The history of the first message by the, 270.
The receiving office of the, at Beechy Head, 334.
Teetotallers. Account of the Bessbrook, 330.
Terra del Fuego. Notes on the gigantic seaweed of, 142. 146.
Thomas Abel. Extracts from a letter of, 134.
Thoughts on the 39th number of this volume, 325.
Tobacco. On the moral effects of, 302.
Toleration in religion. Letter of Wm. Penn on, 74.
Touchy cows. Anecdote of the, with moral, 317.
Trees. Accounts of some ancient, 333. 339.
Trinidad. The pitch lake of, 181.
Tropics. On the vegetation of the, 123.
Trust in Providence, illustrated by an incident in the life of Nathan Hunt, 282.
Tunnel under the English Channel. Conclusions of engineers respecting the practicability of, 149.
Turtle. Notes on the, 138.
Two Covenants." Essay entitled, "The, 341.
Typhoid fever. Effects of impure water in producing, 356. 358.

Van Hassen Gharret. Account of the convincement and death of, 402.
Vegetation in the tropics. Remarks on, 123.
Illustration of the rapid growth of tropical, 178.
Ventilation. The necessity of, to health, 410.
Vesuvius. Account of the eruption of, in 1872, 125. 182. 185.
Vigilance over self essential to the christian, 379.
Virtues to be cherished, 299.
Vokins Joan. An invitation by, to all those that want peace with God, 12.
A testimony to the work of God's power by, 18.
Volcanoes. Observations on the physical causes of, 89. 98.
Volcanoes of the Phillipine Islands. On the, 61.
Account of the eruption of Vesuvius, 1872, 125. 182. 185.
Account of the first ascent of Cotopaxi, 289.
Voyage on an ice-floe. Account of a, 345. 355.

Walter William. Memorial concerning, 412.
Want of faithfulness in little things. Remarks of R. Shackleton on, 235.
War. On the unchristian character of Bishop Whipples' eulogy of, 106.
On the happy results of arbitration in settling international disputes, 143.
Extract from John Woolman upon, 153.
Memorial of Friends to the Constitutional Convention upon military services, 183.
Comments on the late Modoc Indian, 221.
On the example of Oliver Cromwell in relation to, 229.
Review of the results of, in Europe, during the last twenty years, 237.
Instance of a testimony against, among the French "Derbists," 367.
Opinions of several great men upon, 381.
Wars with Indians. Statistics of the cost of some late, 78.
The policy of, considered, 84.
Wasp. Account of a pet, 220.
Water. Account of phenomena attending the decomposition of, 57.
Waterspout. Description of a, 148.
Way to life, and the effects of walking therein. The, 12. 18.
Way to salvation. The, 139.
"We are a chosen people." Essay entitled, 218.
Weather for Twelfth month, 1872. Review of the, 178.
First month, 1873. Review of the, 213.
Sixth month, 1873. Review of the, 381.
Statement in regard to the predictions of the, by the signal service bureau, 219.
Webster Daniel. History of a remarkable passage in a speech of, 4.
"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Extract entitled, 110.
Westinghouse air brake. Account of a trial of the, 322.
Westtown Boarding School. Report of the Committee having charge of, 166.
Letters to the Superintendents of, 268. 269.
Remarks on raising a fund for increasing the salaries of the teachers of, 324.
What the day calls for. Extract entitled, 230.
Wheeler Daniel. Remarks of, on his death bed, 2.
Remarks of, on the last illness of his son Charles, 2.
Extract from, on the disappointment experienced by some in religion, 6.
Extract from, on the responsibility of elders, 7.
Convincement of, and testimony of in relation to a plain dress, 298.
Whittier's Pastorius. Extracts from, 204.
"Why the vacant seats are not filled up." Essay entitled, 198.
"Without me ye can do nothing." Essay and extracts entitled, 99. 108. 117. 123.
Comments on the above, 124. 127.
Wonders of Vegetation. Notes on some of the, 333. 339.
Wood. Alleged method of rendering fire-proof, 127.
On the transformations of, 235.
Women. Advantages of teaching, the principles of account-keeping, &c., 293.
The influence of, as felt at home, 316.
Women of rank. Remarks on the industrious habits of English, 38.
Women's rights and proper place. Remarks on, 254.
Woolman John. On the superfluities of life, 333.
Encouragement from, to the faithful Friends, 347.
The testimonies of the Society a weighty trust to its members. Remarks on, 366.
Remarks on being tried with prosperity, 375.
Worldly business and outwart greatness. On, 333.
Worship. Remarks of T. Story on drowsiness in meetings for, 71.
Worship. Observations of David Hall upon attending meetings for, 227.
Hints towards discouraging wandering thoughts in meetings for, 299.
Some expressions of a child, upon attending meetings for, 332.
Remarks on the performance of acceptable, 379.

Year 1872. Extraordinary character of meteorological and other phenomena of the, 13. 178.
Reflections upon the events of, 159. 179.
Yearly Meeting, Baltimore, 1872. Notice of proceedings of, 176.
Yearly Meeting, Canada, 1872. Notice of the proceedings of, 31.
Indiana 1872. Notice of the proceedings of, 111.
Iowa. Appeal on behalf of education in, 410.
Kansas, 1872 Notice of the proceedings of, 128.
London, 1842. Counsel of upon the religious training of youth, 62.
1838. Extract from an Epistle of, 91.
1827. Extract from an Epistle of, 98.
1836. Part of a communication of S. [L] Grubb in, 187.
1777. Advice of, against mixed marriages, 334.
1873. Account of the proceedings of, 359.
New York, 1873. Brief reference to, 389.
Comments on a minute of, in relation to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 398. 406.
Ohio, 1872. Notice of the proceedings of, 79.
Extracts from the minutes of, 95.
Philadelphia, 1872. Remarks in relation to the Committee appointed by, to visit the subordinate meetings, &c., 159.
1847. Remarks on the "Appeal for the Ancient Doctrines" by, 278.
1873. Account of the proceedings of, 294. 359.
Comments on the course of, 343. 398. 406.
Western, 1872. Notice of the proceedings of, 111.

Young. Remarks upon and advice to the, by R. Shackleton, 199.
"Youth of our day." Extract entitled, 220.

Zoophytes of the Victoria docks, London. Notes on the, 82.

ng
hts
ing
79. gi-
ed-
ed-
111.
128.
ious
ubb
334.
Phil-
9.
the bor-
An-294.
s of,
R. s on